Southern Coast Pre-Tour

July 21 - 25, 2022 • $TBD*

July 21 - Depart Home

July 22 - Arrive in Reykjavik & Hafnarfjorour

Arrive in Reykjavik and be met by your guide. Drive outside of Reykjavik and visit Hafnarfjorour, nicknamed "the town in lava," as it sits in the middle of a lava field. This charming old town was planned and built around nature and is associated with the legends of Icelandic elves. See the old houses, and visit Helligeroi a popular park, where natural lava formations can be observed. The park also houses the only collection of Japanese bonsai trees in Iceland. Travel to the clifftop for an amazing picturesque view before returning to Reykjavik to check into your hotel.

July 23 - South Coast Highlights Tour

This jewel of Iceland tour packages will take you south before continuing to the east as we whisk you away for two days of amazing adventure sightseeing. We drive towards the slowly rising sun on the way to our first stop, the very unusual Seljalandsfoss waterfall. You can actually walk behind the gracefully falling cascade. It is well worth getting a little damp for such an exciting experience! Our next highlight is another waterfall, Skógafoss, located at the foot of a very famous volcano, Eyjafjallajökull. On a clear day, you will also get a great view of another volcano mountain glacier, Mýrdalsjökull. As we continue on, we come to Reynisfjara, a black beach where some fantastic sights, such as the picturesque basalt column formations and the famous Reynisdrangar peaks, will greet us. We will drive through the charming small town of Vík on our way to our accommodation. Throughout the entire day, you can expect to see breathtaking landscapes consisting of vast lava fields, waterfalls, black sands and glacier tongues. Overnight at Glacier Lagoon area.

July 24 - Crystal Ice Cave tour and Jökulsárlón

Today, you will really get to know the glacier, venturing into the sparkling, blue/white world of an ice cave with a qualified guide, and visiting the extraordinary glacier lagoon, Jökulsárlón. Getting up close and personal with a vast glacial tongue of the great Vatnajökull glacier does not get any better than this! The renowned Jökulsárlón Ice Lagoon, made famous by several blockbuster movies including Batman Begins and The Secret Life of Walter Mitty, is a totally mind-blowing place. Splendid icebergs of amazing shapes, some incredibly large, have calved off the receding Breiðamerkurjökull glacier. They jostle one another in the huge lagoon before gliding on their surreal and stately journeys to the Atlantic ocean. Many of these natural ice sculptures are washed onto the nearby Diamond Beach. You will see them glittering like diamonds as they rest on the dramatic coal blackness of the beach. Next, you go into the glacier with a qualified guide! Ice caves are fascinating. New caves are formed each winter by the melt/freeze cycle of the glacier. They are always changing from year to year and even within each winter. The journey into an ice cave will give photographers the most amazing opportunity to capture the shimmering blue light which passes through the glacial ice. Surprisingly deep shades of jewel blue will surround you. These tones are caused by ice compression, which affects the way we perceive light and color, and the blueness can sometimes be intensified by algae. After visiting the ice cave, we head towards Reykjavik. We stop at Skaftafell Nature Reserve in Vatnajökull National Park, a green area in the midst of amazingly jagged mountains and glacier-topped peaks. The splendid scenery of Skaftafell is certain to be a highlight of your tour.

August 4 - Reykjavík, Iceland

6:00 AM Departure

Disembark the Norwegian Star this morning and enjoy a walking tour of Reykjavík. This tour takes you on foot around the heart of Reykjavík with an English speaking Icelander. The main focus is the general history of Iceland and the evolution of Reykjavík as a town. We also tell you about elves, Vikings, food, night life, music, economic aspects and political affairs. Finally, there are the funny facts about Iceland and the places you must see in Reykjavík. Check in to your hotel this afternoon for your two night stay.

August 5 - Golden Circle

From Reykjavík, you will then drive off to the famous Golden Circle in our Super Jeep, which will be our ride of the day. This tour allows visitors to get in touch with some of Iceland's most famous and exciting natural phenomena. Your first stop for the day will be at Þingvellir National Park, 40 min east of the city. Þingvellir is one of Iceland's most historic sites as it was here that Iceland's first parliament, Alþingi, was founded in the year 930 AD. From Þingvellir, you will then head to the world-renowned geothermal area around Geysir hot spring, where you can witness gurgling bubbling water burst up to 25 meters high. The area is covered in numerous hot springs, with some active and others not. The area is smoke filled and mysterious but exciting at the same time. Strokkur is now the main number of the show as it bursts every 4 to 10 minutes. From Geysir, you will continue on to Gullfoss, "the Golden waterfall". Gullfoss is a great sight and a perfect photo spot with water rushing down three steps of lava layers exhibiting breathtaking power and grandeur. This is the final stop of the Golden Circle but definitely not of the day. Next up, you kick the action into a higher gear and go for a one-hour snowmobiling ride on Langjökull, Iceland's second largest glacier. Our Super Jeep has no problem reaching the glacier camp on Langjökull, and the views whilst getting there are amazing. Our snowmobile guides will welcome you, give a briefing and provide proper gear for the snowmobiling. Once you are all suited up, there is nothing left to do than to step onto your snowmobile and follow your guide on an hour's glacier expedition. To explore a glacier is an enchanting experience on its own but to do it on a snowmobile is something else! After the ride of a lifetime, we will join again at the glacier camp before jumping into our Super Jeep again and starting our scenic drive back to Reykjavík.
