April 26 – Depart USA
Your journey begins when you depart on your international overnight flight to England.

April 27 – Arrive in England, Cambridge
Welcome to London! Our representative will greet and escort you to your bus. Journey north to Cambridge University that was founded in 1209 by a small group of masters and students fleeing from riot-torn Oxford. Early reformers like William Tyndale attended Cambridge. At the White Horse Inn, a group of men introduced concepts from the German Reformation to England. Cambridge’s Sidney Sussex College produced Oliver Cromwell, leader of both Protestant and Republican reforms in England. Visit King’s College chapel to see Rubens’ breathtaking Adoration of the Magi.

April 28 – Boston, Lutterworth, Coventry
This morning’s first stop is Boston, birthplace of John Foxe and home to St. Botolph’s Church. In 1607, Puritan leaders (then known as Separatists) were held at Boston’s Guildhall for dissent from the Church of England and for trying to depart for Holland in search of freedom of worship. Travel on to Lutterworth, where John Wycliffe served at the Parish Church of St. Mary while translating the Bible into the English language. Today’s final destination is Coventry, the city almost completely destroyed by German bombers in 1940. When the city rebuilt, it chose to leave the charred remains of the old Coventry Cathedral next to the new modern one.

April 29 – Elstow, Olney, and Oxford
Learn about the life of John Bunyan as you visit his childhood church in Elstow and tour the Bunyan Museum in his hometown, Bedford. After a brief stop in Olney to see John Newton’s grave, head to Oxford, home to a host of church reformers including Wycliffe, Tyndale, Foxe and Wesley. It was here that the Holy Club inspired the Wesleys, George Whitefield and others to reach out beyond the established church to the unsaved masses in England and the New World.

April 30 – Gloucester, North Nibley, Bristol and Bath
Start the day in Gloucester by touring the St. Mary de Crypt Church that changed the world. The first Women’s Society was founded here, and both Robert Raikes (founder of the Sunday School movement) and evangelist George Whitefield grew up at St. Mary’s. John Wesley was so profoundly influenced by Raikes and Whitefield. Travel to Tyndale’s hometown of North Nibley before continuing on to Bristol. Tour the “New Room,” one of Wesley’s early centers of ministry. Visit the home of John’s brother, the famous hymn writer Charles Wesley, in Bath. The city’s warm waters and unique Roman baths have been a source of refreshment and healing since the first century.

May 1 – Windsor, Runnymede and London
Visit a tribute to martyrs of the faith before continuing on to Windsor Castle, the traditional home of the British Monarchy. Visit St. George’s Chapel, the burial place of the last ten Sovereigns of the British Empire. Enjoy free time to explore the picturesque streets of Windsor before heading to nearby Runnymede, where the Magna Carta was signed. In London, your local tour guide will take you on a panoramic sightseeing tour of the city before stopping at Westminster Abbey. The Westminster Confession of Faith was written here, and the abbey contains the graves of many famous people. Enjoy some free time to walk around this area of London before ending the day at your hotel.

May 2 – London
Her Majesty’s Royal Palace and Fortress (which contains the Tower of London) stands on the banks of the Thames River in the heart of London. Reformers such as Sir John Oldcastle were imprisoned here during the repression of the Lollards in the 1400s. Continue on to St. James Palace, where the Henry VIII’s demand for a divorce helped fan the flames of England’s Reformation. Next stop is Bunhill Fields Cemetery, known as the “cemetery of Puritan England.” John Bunyan, Isaac Watts, Daniel Defoe, Susannah Wesley as well as members of the Cromwell family are interred here. Across the street, visit Wesley's Chapel and gravesite at the Wesley House and Museum. Tour the Church of St. Giles Without Cripplegate which has ties to reformers John Foxe, Robert Crowley, and Oliver Cromwell. The rest of the day is yours to explore on your own.

May 3 – Canterbury and Greenwich
This morning drive to Canterbury, the ecclesiastical capital of England. Tour the historic Canterbury Cathedral. While many of the original structures were dismantled during the Dissolution of the Monasteries, Canterbury rose again to prominence as home to French Huguenots escaping persecution and the Mayflower Compact to transport pilgrims to the new world. See the Royal Greenwich Observatory which contains the National Maritime Museum. Because the Prime Meridian passes through the observatory, Greenwich Mean Time was at one time based on the time observations made there. Return to London for dinner and overnight.

May 4 – Return to USA or join an extension
Return home with memories of the people of the English Reformation and their sacrifices made or join the London On Own extension.
