November 2 - Depart the USA

November 3 - Arrive in Istanbul

Transfer to your hotel for dinner & overnight.

November 4 - Istanbul: Blue Mosque, St. Sophia, Underground Cisterns, Hippodrome

Visit the famous Blue Mosque with its six minarets and sparkling interior. Walk through St. Sophia (Hagia Sophia), which was the largest church in Christendom for 1,000 years. Built by Justinian (532-537 AD), the church has 107 columns, fossil-embedded, white marble floors, and beautiful glass mosaics. See the Underground Cisterns, built to provide fresh water for the city. Istanbul's Byzantine Hippodrome was the heart of Constantinople's political and sporting life and the scene of games and riots through 500 years of Ottoman history as well. It's now a calm city park called the At Meydani (Horse Grounds) because of its function in Ottoman times. Later this afternoon, transfer to the airport for your flight to Izmir. Overnight in the Kusadasi area.

November 5 - The Ministry of Paul and John in Ephesus: Roman ruins, Church of St. John Ephesus is one of the Seven Churches of Revelation (Rev. 1:11). In ancient days, Ephesus was a bustling port town of 250,000, graced with wide, colonnade bordered streets. Today, you will be impressed with the spectacular excavations of the major streets of ancient Ephesus. You will view the library and the huge agora. The Temple of Artemis was declared one of the Seven Wonders of the World. Today, only a single column remains to mark the site. You will visit the Basilica of St. John, the traditional site of his grave. From the basilica, enjoy a commanding view of the area. You will visit the Museum of Ephesus for an up-close look at artifacts from the ancient city. You will have time to explore this powerful city on your own and recreate some of the footsteps of Paul.

November 6 - Farewell to the Elders of Ephesus: Miletus, Priene, Didyma

Visit the excavations at Miletus, where Paul bid farewell to the elders of the church at Ephesus at the end of his third missionary journey (Acts 20). Though not mentioned in the Bible, Priene had a substantial Christian community during the Byzantine period and was the seat of a bishop. Four of Priene's bishops are known: Theosebius, present at the Council of Ephesus; Isidore, who was living in 451; Paul, present at the Council of Constantinople; and Demetrius. See the ruins of Didyma, whose oracle was considered second only to Delphi in the ancient Greek world.

November 7 - The Seven Churches: Hierapolis, Laodicea, Colossae

Hierapolis is blessed by hot mineral springs and some of the best-preserved Roman ruins in Asia Minor. Paul mentions Hierapolis in his letter to the Colossians in saluting Epaphras, a fellow laborer, for his love of the brethren there (Colossians 4:13). The ruins cover more than a mile. You will see the impressive amphitheater with seats still in perfect condition. You will see the City Gates, column-lined streets and arches, which have stood through time and earthquakes. Today, the area is known as Pamukkale, meaning "Cotton Castle," named for the limestone-laden hot springs, which cascade from one white-edged terrace pool to the next. The Christians of Laodicea, one of the Seven Churches (Rev. 3: 14-22), were chastised for being lukewarm, "You are neither cold nor hot" (Rev. 3:15), and for being too comfortable incorporating pagan and Christian beliefs. In the famous scripture from Revelation (3:20-21), Jesus says to the Laodicean church: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock." Today, there are many acres of ruins to see, including the stadium and columned streets. Famous as the receiver of Paul's letter to the Colossians, the town of Colossae has fallen into obscurity. While you can still see traces of the theatre, the Necropolis and the Church, the ancient city is mostly indistinguishable ruins. Overnight in the Pamukkale area.

November 8 - The Seven Churches: Izmir (Old Smyrna), Sardis, Philadelphia, Thyatira

The third-largest city in modern Turkey is Izmir, long a center for Jewish and Christian communities. In Paul's day, the town was known as Smyrna. It was one of the Seven Churches of Revelation (Rev. 2: 8-11). You will see the agora, the colonnaded commercial center where Roman statues can still be seen. Travel to Sardis, another of the Seven Churches of Revelation. Jesus told Sardis, "I know thy works, that thou hast a name, that thou livest, and art dead" (Rev. 3:1-6). Coins were minted, and the dyeing of wool originated in Sardis. Be impressed by the massive scale of the Temple of Artemis, by the white marble Royal Road, by the gymnasium, and by the synagogue. Visit the site of Philadelphia, also one of the Seven Churches of Revelation (Rev. 3:7-13). Christ told those who overcame that He would write upon them "the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is New Jerusalem." (Rev. 3:12) Today, not much is left to mark the spot. You will see an ancient wall and the remains of a Byzantine basilica. Visit Thyatira, once a busy trading center, famous as a "seller of purple." Today, it is famous for Persian rugs. Thyatira, one of the Seven Churches mentioned in Revelations, tolerated the false prophetess, Jezebel (Rev. 1: 11; 2:1 -29). Overnight in the Izmir area.

November 9 - The Seven Churches: Pergamum

Pergamum was another of the seven churches mentioned in Revelations (Rev. 2:12). It displeased the Lord because it tolerated the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which Christ hated (Rev. 2:13 -17). Towering 1,000 feet above the town and commanding a spectacular panorama, is the fabled Acropolis. As you pass through the Royal Gates, you will enter one of the great centers of classic Greek culture. You will see the foundations of the Temple of Zeus, the Temple of Athena, and the ruins of the Library, which once held 200,000 parchment volumes. You will see the remains of the Temple of Trajan, the Grand Theatre, the Gymnasium, and the Health Center (Aesclepiion). Overnight in the Canakkale area.

November 10 - Paul's Ministry in Philippi

Cross the Dardanelles by ferryboat into Greece. Continue to Philippi, where Paul spoke to the women gathered by the stream. Lydia, the seller of purple, had her heart open to the words that he spoke (Acts 16) and became the first European convert to Christianity. This place is remembered with a small outdoor worship area. Nearby is a chapel whose acoustics will thrill your heart as you sing praises there! Further into Philippi, you will come across a chamber thought to have been where Paul was imprisoned. See the famous Acropolis, marketplace, theater, and the remains of a great Christian Basilica that once served the Philippians. Travel to the Thessaloniki area for overnight.

November 11 - Paul's Ministry in Macedonia: Thessaloniki, Veria (Berea), Vergina, Dion

Paul was accused of turning the world upside down with his preaching of Christ in Thessaloniki (Acts 17). This city is home to the Thessalonians of his letters. Stop at St. George's Basilica, built over the place tradition holds the synagogue where Paul preached once stood. Look out over the second-largest city in Greece from the Old City Ramparts, portions of which were built in Roman times. Along the Via Egnatia stands the Galerius Arch, built to commemorate the Roman emperor's visit to the city. Wander the halls of the local archaeological museum. The city is home to two beautiful basilicas, St. Sophia and St. Demetrios. St. Demetrios is dedicated to a distinguished Roman soldier who became a martyr for his Christian faith. Veria (ancient Berea) is where Paul discovered Jews and honorable Greeks who had accepted the New Faith in the local synagogue (Acts 17). Visit Vergina, famous as the site of the ancient city of Aigai. It is also the site of many great archaeological discoveries, including the tomb of Philip the II, father of Alexander the Great. See the ancient city of Dion, an important archaeological site of Macedonian culture. The village gets its name from the important sanctuary built there, which was dedicated to Zeus (Dias, "of Zeus"). Continue to the Larissa area for overnight.

November 12 - Delphi - Field Trip: Sacred Way, Athenian Treasury, Theater, Temple of Apollo

Today, continue your journey to Delphi, home to the religious center of the ancient Greeks and thought by them to be the center of the world. A conical stone marks the earth's omphalos ("navel"). Walk the Sacred Via to the Athenian Treasury, the Theater and the Temple of Apollo. In the temple, the oracle would perform the rituals of prophecy. With innumerable pagan ruins surrounding your walk, appreciate the challenge Paul faced in preaching the Gospel of Christ in Macedonia. Stop at the museum where many ancient treasures are stored, including a fifth-century, bronzed Charioteer so finely detailed that he even has eyelashes! Continue to the Athens area for overnight.

November 13 - Paul's Ministry in Athens and Corinth: Athens Acropolis, Areopagus (Hill of Ares or Mars Hill), the Agora, Corinthian Canal, Ancient Corinth

Enjoy the architectural splendors of the ancient city of Athens as you follow your guide to the world-renowned Acropolis, the Propylaea, the Parthenon, and the Erechtheum. View Mars Hill where the apostle Paul stood and said, "I found an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Whom you therefore ignorantly worship, Him I declare unto you" (Acts 17:23). See the agora, the ancient marketplace and center of Athenian public life.

Here, Paul preached "Jesus and the Resurrection" (Acts 17:18) to the skeptical Athenians. Drive to ancient Corinth and on the way, view the amazing Corinthian Canal. Wander the streets of ancient Corinth, home to the tent makers Aquilla and Priscilla. Here, the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision, saying "I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city" (Acts 18:10). Here, Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, and many Corinthians also believed and were baptized (Acts 18:8). This was the beginning of the church at Corinth, to whom Paul would write two epistles. Stand on the Bema, where Paul stood before the magistrate Gallo facing charges from the Jews. Walk the marketplace and Temple of Apollo. Visit the archaeological museum. Return to Athens area for overnight.

STATEMENTS OF RESPONSIBILITY

EOT does not accept responsibility for losses or additional expenses due to delay or changes in air schedules, hotel overbookings, other hotel related problems or causes, and/or travel supplier cancellations or postponements. Travel suppliers include all tour operators, cruise lines, airlines, hotels, bus companies, entertainment venues, and any other travel supplier used to operate the tour. All such losses or expenses will be the responsibility of the passenger. EOT reserves the right to make adjustments to the itinerary as deemed desirable by EOT, and EOT reserves the right to cancel any tour prior to departure. If a tour is canceled beyond the control of EOT, EOT will provide a refund or a future travel credit to be used two years from the date of issuance for the value of all funds paid by the passenger less nonrefundable travel supplier prepaid deposits, travel supplier change fees, nonrefundable travel protection premiums, and a $150 administration fee.

FIT TO TRAVEL STATEMENT:

Passengers registering for the tour accept the responsibility for being in good health and able to walk and travel on the tour. Because many of the sites are physically challenging and space limitations on tour buses, wheelchairs and scooters cannot be accommodated. Those needing oxygen or other ambulatory assistance will find the tour extremely limiting in their experiences. Persons using C-pap machines requiring distilled water will need to inform us ahead of time, so we can work with local operators to prepare as it is not always available. EOT reserves the right to refuse or revoke travel to anyone who is, in the sole judgment of EOT, incapable of group travel without causing undue demands upon the staff or other tour participants. Accessible rooms/cabins are limited and subject to confirmation after receiving the passenger's written request. If you have questions, please see eo.travel/fit-to-travel-statement or contact Educational Opportunities Tours Inc. for more details.

PASSPORT INFORMATION:

Passport information must be submitted to our office no later than 07/20/23. Failure to provide your passport information to our office by this date may result in change fees or denial of travel. Discrepancies in information may result in change fees, delays in receiving travel documents for your trip, or denial of travel. Any fees incurred due to discrepancies are the responsibility of the passenger.

PRICE INCREASES:

All prices quoted in this brochure are subject to change prior to payment in full due to currency fluctuations, fuel surcharge increases, government taxes and fees increases or unforeseen circumstances. In addition, you may be subject to a price increase after payment in full has been received due to potential government imposed taxes and fees.

AIRLINE ROUTES AND TICKETS:

In order to keep prices low, EOT does not guarantee the most direct routing to your final destination. Once issued, airline tickets cannot be changed or refunded thereafter. Air transportation to/from your destination will be economy class on IATA and ARC carriers utilizing APEX or SUPER APEX non-refundable, non-amendable tickets for groups of 10 or more flying together on entire itinerary. If you choose to depart from a different city than your group or traveling companion, or deviate your flight and/or trip plans, and/or you are taking a pre or post tour, you may fly on a different scheduled flight(s) than the rest of your group. If you make your own air arrangements, you are responsible for booking all needed flights for your travel unless specified otherwise. Contact guest services for further details.

FLIGHT TIMES AND SEATING:

All flights are subject to change by the airlines without advance notice. EOT is not responsible for such changes or delays and does not reimburse expenses resulting from such delays. If you are making your own flight arrangements to the departure city, we recommend you purchase a ticket that can be exchanged without large penalties. There is no advance seat selection for groups on most airlines. Early check-in is necessary to secure seats with travel companions and those with special needs. Due to security measures taken at airports, it is advisable to arrive at the airport three hours prior to departure time. Seating is solely under the control of the airlines.

ADDITIONAL AIRLINE FEES:

You will likely incur additional airline checked baggage fees that are not included in the price of the tour. These fees vary by airline and are at the airline's discretion on each segment of the flight itinerary. Additionally, you may incur optional fees (food, excess baggage, overweight baggage, items of personal nature, etc.) as well. For more information, visit www.eo.travel/travel-info/airline-fees.aspx.

ON OWN DEVIATIONS:

On Own Deviations from the standard tour program must be submitted in writing and are subject to additional airline fees, if applicable. Transfers for passengers who deviate are not included.

ITINERARY CHANGES:

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this brochure. While EOT will make every effort to ensure you will see all sites listed in this brochure, the availability of sites, order of sites and/or days and number of days may be altered to accommodate changes in airline, hotel schedules, and local conditions. No changes to the itinerary are effective unless approved in writing and signed by an authorized officer of the tour operator. Except as stated herein, no other person is authorized to cancel, modify or vary the tour arrangements or to make any representation of warranty concerning the tour.

Due to airline schedules, some participants may receive one or two extra leisure days at a nominal per day charge and some extensions may not be available on all departure dates. If itinerary changes necessitate extra overnights, you will be charged $125 per night; single rooms $175 per night. Meals for extra nights are not included.

VALIDITY DATE:

This brochure is valid until 05/01/23. If validity date has passed, current brochures may be found at www.eo.travel. Registrations will still be accepted after the validity date.

RELEASE INFORMATION:

Payment of deposit indicates permission for EOT or its agents to record the registrant's participation and appearance on video tape, audio tape, film, photograph, or any other medium and to use the registrant's name, likeness, voice, comments, submitted documentation, written papers, and/or biographical material without restrictions or limitation for any advertising, marketing, publicity, educational or promotional purpose which EOT or its agents deem appropriate, unless the registrant or guardian otherwise notifies EOT in writing prior to departure.

Enrollment in, payment of deposit and/or acceptance of final documents, vouchers, or tickets shall be deemed to be consent to the Passenger Agreement and Program Conditions of the brochure. Prices are based on tariffs in effect as of January 1 of the previous year and are subject to adjustment without notice in the event of any change or currency fluctuation.

Except where otherwise stated, EOT acts only as agent for the relevant supplier in securing hotels, transportation and other travel services and in no event shall EOT be liable for failure by any such supplier to render any transportation, lodging or other travel service to be provided on the tour. The passenger agrees that EOT assumes no liability for injury, death, damage, loss, theft, accident, delay, any lost or damaged luggage, or irregularity which may occur by reason of any negligent or willful act or omission of any suppliers of service.

EOT does not own or operate any of the suppliers of services to your tour. Similarly without limiting the foregoing, passenger agrees to hold EOT harmless for any defect in any vehicle, plane, boat, bus, car, van or other vehicle, act of war or insurrection, terrorist activity, revolt or other civil uprising, military action, strikes or labor unrest or any Act of God or for any other act of any third party. Florida law will be applicable to any dispute which arises out of or concerns this brochure or your tour. Any and all litigation must be brought only in and for courts in Polk County, Florida to the exclusion of litigation anywhere else in the world. Educational Opportunities Tours is the tour operator and is solely responsible for the travel program. Educational Opportunities Tours is registered with the State of Florida as a Seller of Travel.
