May 11 – Depart the USA

Depart on your overnight international flight.

May 12 – Arrive in Warsaw

Meet your driver and guide at the Warsaw airport. Enjoy a city tour of Warsaw. After its almost complete devastation during World War II, the city was reborn out of the ashes and has developed into a modern centre of culture, science, and business. The tour of the city includes the Old Town, which was reconstructed after World War II in a faithful rendering of the original. At its heart is the Market Square, from where narrow streets lead to medieval defensive walls, the Barbican, St. John's Cathedral, and the Royal Castle. Check into your hotel for dinner and overnight. (D)

May 13 – Warsaw / Holy Trinity Church / Łazienki Park

After a leisurely breakfast, prepare to explore more of Warsaw. Begin your day by visiting the Holy Trinity Church, the largest Lutheran church in Poland. The church's recognizable circular design and unique architecture will impress. After some time on your own for lunch, head to Łazienki Park for a visit. Formerly a hunting ground, in the 18th century it was turned into a classical English landscape park with formal gardens, and the neoclassical Łazienki Palace was built on an island in the park's lake. There are other stunning attractions in the park, including a Greek and Roman-inspired amphitheatre. Return to your hotel for dinner and overnight. (B, D)

May 14 – Warsaw to Toruń

After breakfast, you will depart for Toruń to embark on a city tour. The Old Town of Toruń is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the best-preserved medieval towns in Europe. Here you will enjoy a city tour to see some of the town, which has a notable Protestant legacy dating back to the Reformation. As a member of the Hanseatic League, Toruń had significant German (Lutheran) influence, especially in the 16th and 17th centuries. The city was home to a vibrant Protestant community, and there are still historic Protestant churches and traces of religious coexistence and tension. Enjoy some free time for lunch on your own. This afternoon, visit the Copernicus House and Museum. Highlighting the life of Nicolaus Copernicus, your visit will discuss his revolutionary heliocentric model of the universe. His story prompts reflection on how faith, science, and reform can coexist. Dinner and overnight in Toruń. (B, D)

May 15 – Toruń to Gdańsk

Depart this morning to travel to Gdańsk. On the way, you will stop at the Malbork Castle. This castle is Poland's finest fortress, with an impressive collection of medieval artifacts and art displayed. This afternoon, you will arrive in Gdańsk. The city of Gdańsk is blessed with more buildings and monuments than anywhere else in the Baltic region. You can stroll along the historic Royal Way and Długie Pobrzeże (the "Long Waterfront"), where you will discover priceless gems, including delightful merchant's houses, the stately Artus Court, the Gothic Town Hall, the monumental St. Mary's Church towering above the city, and Neptune Fountain, a great symbol of Gdańsk. (B, D)

May 16 – Train to Krakow

Take a train to Krakow with your guide. Take in the scenic countryside. Upon arrival, enjoy some free time for lunch. Having escaped destruction during World War II, the city has uniquely retained its charming medieval form. Embark on a walking tour exploring the city with your guide. The central Market Square, the largest in Europe, is where several of the city's architectural and cultural landmarks can be found, such as the Cloth Hall, which today houses a gallery of Polish paintings, and St. Mary's Church, world-famous for its altar carved by Veit Stoss. Check into your hotel for dinner and overnight. (B, D)

May 17 – Krakow and Wieliczka

In the morning, you will visit the Wawel Castle. Here you will see the Wawel Cathedral, which is the coronation site of Polish kings. Continue to the Evangelical-Augsburg Church to explore the Church's roots in Poland. Then travel to the Wieliczka Salt Mines. Descend via stairway into the depths of the earth to see the wonders left behind by the miners, including chapels and chandeliers made from the salt. (B, D)

May 18 – Time in Krakow

After breakfast, continue to the Auschwitz-Birkenau Concentration Camp. Here, you will walk the grounds in remembrance of those who lost their lives there. In the afternoon, visit Collegium Maius. This building, located in the University, laid the groundwork for Protestant reformers like Luther and Calvin. Enjoy a relaxing evening before you return home. (B, D)

May 19 – Return to the USA

Return home inspired by the people and places of Poland.

STATEMENTS OF RESPONSIBILITY

EOT does not accept responsibility for losses or additional expenses due to delay or changes in air schedules, hotel overbookings, other hotel related problems or causes, and/or travel supplier cancellations or postponements. Travel suppliers include all tour operators, cruise lines, airlines, hotels, bus companies, entertainment venues, and any other travel supplier used to operate the tour. All such losses or expenses will be the responsibility of the passenger. EOT reserves the right to make adjustments to the itinerary as deemed desirable by EOT, and EOT reserves the right to cancel any tour prior to departure. If a tour is canceled beyond the control of EOT, EOT will provide a refund or a future travel credit to be used two years from the date of issuance for the value of all funds paid by the passenger less nonrefundable travel supplier prepaid deposits, travel supplier change fees, nonrefundable travel protection premiums, and a $150 administration fee.

FIT TO TRAVEL STATEMENT:

Passengers registering for the tour accept the responsibility for being in good health and able to walk and travel on the tour. Because many of the sites are not accessible to the physically challenged and space limitations on tour buses, wheelchairs and scooters cannot be accommodated. Those needing oxygen or other ambulatory assistance will find the tour extremely limiting in their experiences. Persons using C-pap machines requiring distilled water will need to inform us ahead of time, so we can work with local operators to prepare as it is not always available. EOT reserves the right to refuse or revoke travel to anyone who is, in the sole judgment of EOT, incapable of group travel without causing undue demands upon the staff or other tour participants. Accessible rooms/cabins are limited and subject to confirmation after receiving the passenger's written request. PASSPORT INFORMATION:

Passport information must be submitted to our office no later than 01/16/27. Failure to provide your passport information to our office by this date may result in change fees or denial of travel. Discrepancies in information may result in change fees, delays in receiving travel documents for your trip, or denial of travel. Any fees incurred due to discrepancies are the responsibility of the passenger.

PRICE INCREASES:

All prices quoted in this brochure are subject to change prior to payment in full due to currency fluctuations, fuel surcharge increases, government taxes and fees increases or unforeseen circumstances. In addition, you may be subject to a price increase after payment in full has been received due to potential government imposed taxes and fees.

AIRLINE ROUTES and TICKETS:

In order to keep prices low, EOT does not guarantee the most direct routing to your final destination. Once issued, airline tickets cannot be changed or refunded thereafter. Air transportation to/from your destination will be economy class on IATA and ARC carriers utilizing APEX or SUPER APEX non-refundable, non-amendable tickets for groups of 10 or more flying together on entire itinerary. If you choose to depart from a different city than your group or traveling companion, or deviate your flight and/or trip plans, and/or you are taking a pre or post tour, you may fly on a different scheduled flight(s) than the rest of your group. If you make your own air arrangements, you are responsible for booking all needed flights for your travel unless specified otherwise. Contact guest services for further details.

FLIGHT TIMES AND SEATING:

All flights are subject to change by the airlines without advance notice. EOT is not responsible for such changes or delays and does not reimburse expenses resulting from such delays. If you are making your own flight arrangements to the departure city, we recommend you purchase a ticket that can be exchanged without large penalties. There is no advance seat selection for groups on most airlines. Early check-in is necessary to secure seats with travel companions and those with special needs. Due to security measures taken at airports, it is advisable to arrive at the airport three hours prior to departure time. Seating is solely under the control of the airlines.

ADDITIONAL AIRLINE FEES:

You will likely incur additional airline checked baggage fees that are not included in the price of the tour. These fees vary by airline and are at the airline's discretion on each segment of the flight itinerary. Additionally, you may incur optional fees (food, excess baggage, overweight baggage, items of personal nature, etc.) as well. For more information, visit eo.travel/travel-info/airline-fees.

ON OWN DEVIATIONS:

On Own Deviations from the standard tour program must be submitted in writing and are subject to additional airline fees, if applicable. Transfers for passengers who deviate are not included.

ITINERARY CHANGES:

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this brochure. While EOT will make every effort to ensure you will see all sites listed in this brochure, the availability of sites, order of sites and/or days and number of days may be altered to accommodate changes in airline, hotel schedules, and local conditions. No changes to the itinerary are effective unless approved in writing and signed by an authorized officer of the tour operator. Except as stated herein, no other person is authorized to cancel, modify or vary the tour arrangements or to make any representation of warranty concerning the tour.

Due to airline schedules, some participants may receive one or two extra leisure days at a nominal per day charge and some extensions may not be available on all departure dates. If itinerary changes necessitate extra overnights, you will be charged $125 per night; single rooms $175 per night. Meals for extra nights are not included.
